MISSA BURSARIES 2019

The Metchosin International Summer School of the Arts awards a limited number of full and partial bursaries each year. Selection is undertaken by the Board of Directors, and is based on artistic merit, financial need and a personal commitment to art.

A full bursary includes tuition, meals and accommodation on the Pearson College Campus. A partial bursary covers tuition, lunch and snacks. Supply fees are not covered by bursaries. Bursaries are applicable to all creative workshops offered at MISSA.

Betty Burroughs Memorial Bursary (ceramics)

NEW* Textile Bursary for Emerging Artists (textiles/fiber arts, any age)

MISSA Established Artist Bursary (all mediums)

MISSA Emerging Artist Bursary (Applicants must be 19 to 29 years of age, attending art school or actively pursuing a career as a full-time artist/art teacher)

Successful bursary applicants are required to volunteer for specific tasks during MISSA and after their course, write a report reflecting on their experience.
